Listening from the kitchen, I wasn't sure if they had stopped playing and turned the sound system back on - the singing and playing were amazing! Sasparilla, pictured above on the BC Lite stage, features Winston Mitchell on mandolin, Alan Barnosky on Bass, and Connor Koz on guitar. All three of these musicians play in separate bands, but came together to form their own Bluegrass sound as Sasparilla. This was their first gig and they sounded great! If you weren't there, you missed some great tunes, fast licks, and dedicated musicianship on stage. See you at the next one!

Alex Berman brought his musical talents to the BC Bar stage on Saturday night. Sporting a banjo and a guitar, Alex played and sung songs from Bill Monroe to Merle Haggard and sounded fantastic. Previously, Alex was a singer and banjo player for the Dirty Grass Players. Currently, Alex can be found accompanying talents such as Cris Jacobs on stage or solo here at B Chord! Thanks to everyone who came out to help Alex feel welcome!

More about our Vision and Mission...

As the premier live music and brewing destination for Bluegrass and Old Time music, B Chord Live seeks to preserve the legacy and traditions of southern Appalachian mountain music while supporting those who will carry on the traditions.

B Chord Live has been open for just over 6 months in western North Carolina. Our vision to build a destination for excellent live music, delicious craft brews and tasty fresh food is well underway! We chose 47 Duke Street in Granite Falls because it is in WNC, and more precisely because of its location and proximity to everything else. When moving to a new place, you can research and study all you want, but you will never truly get a sense until you live there!

One example of acclimatizing is getting used to the weather. It is its only little ecosystem right here... and over there as well. You never know... scattered storms... it doesn't last long, unless it does... then you're ready for a change, and it changes! The weather in Granite Falls is wonderfully unpredictable. We come from a very beautiful area in northern VA horse country, with rolling hills and access to the the Blue Ridge Parkway, but being immersed in WNC has its own feel that cannot be compared, and we love it! But how does the weather affect business at B Chord Live? This is a question we ask frequently, trying to understand our audience and patrons so that we can best serve them!

Roads, they keep a changin'!... we hear how traffic patterns have changed and about plans for future widening of roads. We wonder how this will affect business at B Chord Live and we are working proactively with leaders in the community to understand the planning and development of the area. The Caldwell Chamber of Commerce has been most excellent in their support of B Chord Live and an invaluable resource to connect with other businesses and to meet new people! Everyone has a story!

Which brings us to the people... the people we have met here in Caldwell have been incredibly friendly and sincere. Locals often tell us they are rooting for us to succeed, and, they show up to help us do so! They bring their friends, and we see new faces all the time. We are so grateful for the genuine hospitality and support from everyone! We built B Chord Live for everyone to enjoy and celebrate the arts, culture and history of the western NC region. For us, this starts with live music and stems out from there, while holding a delicious BC brewed beverage!

Stick with us as more of our vision unfolds. More stories to share and you'll see our updates when you come into B Chord Live in person! See you soon! And, tell all your friends :) Thanks!
